FAQ's

- 1. As a potential buyer, how can I participate in the youth livestock sale?
  - a. Participate in the sale by bidding or purchasing an exhibitor's animal
    - i. By phone (573) 340-5011 or in person
- 2. What is the floor price?
  - a. Represents the current value of the live animal and will be similar to what is paid at a local livestock market
- 3. What options do I have as a buyer?
  - a. Option 1 – Floor the animal
    - i. You, as the buyer, pay the difference between the established floor price and sale price. You, as the buyer, are not responsible for the animal. Proceeds directed to youth exhibitor
  - b. Option 2—Keep the animal
    - i. You, as the buyer, become sole owner of the animal. You, as the buyer, can take the animal home w/you, or send it to a processing facility. You, as the buyer, are responsible for full cost + processing fees (at the processing facility).
  - c. Option 3 – Resell the animal
    - i. You, as the buyer, purchase the animal at auction price and then notify the auctioneer you want the animal to be “resold.” Animal is resold at the end of the auction, and goes to the next buyer. You, as the initial buyer, are not responsible for the animal. You can choose where proceeds are directed (4-H/FFA or Barn Improvement Fund)
- 4. Where do you recommend I send my animal(s) for processing?
  - a. Local processing plants have been contacted for available appointments and arrangements will be made at check-out.
- 5. What if I buy a hog weighing over 300lbs?
  - a. A buyer purchasing a hog weighing over 300 lbs. will only pay bid price on 300 lbs.
